Stourbridge and District Cats Protection

Release date: 3rd February 2004

Find the purr-fect partner in Stourbridge this Valentine's Day!

This Valentine's Day, volunteers at Stourbridge and District Cats Protection are hoping that gorgeous Orlando, Morris, George and other cats like them will find lasting love.

But sadly, because of ongoing age discrimination, the Branch is worried that that these loving cats might lose out in the love stakes on February 14th.

Orlando, Morris, George and cats like them would make very loving companions, according to Branch spokesperson Rob Hall.

"They have the most fantastic, friendly natures. But when it comes to finding a home, sadly Orlando, Morris and George have been overlooked for some time in favour of their younger companions."

The Branch is keen to dispel age discrimination to improve the chances of all the felines in their care finding love this Valentine's Day.

"Beauty is only fur deep. Black cats have such character. Surely it's a pet's personality that is most important?" questioned Rob Hall.

To find out more about Orlando, Morris, George and cats like them please call Stourbridge and District Cats Protection on 07092 301744.

Cats Protection is the country's oldest and largest feline charity. The charity homes 60,000 cats each year through its nationwide network of 30 Shelters and 260 Branches.
